MISCELLANEOUS READING. POVERTY NOT SO GREAT A CURSE.—If there is any thing in the world that a young man should be more thankful for than another, it is the poverty which necessitates his starting in life under very great disadvantages. Poverty is one of the best tests of human quality in existence. A triumph over it is like graduating with honor from West Point. It demonstrates stuff and stamina. It is a certificate of worthy labor, creditably performed. A young man who cannot stand the test is not worth anything. He can never rise above a drudge or a pauper. A young man who cannot feel his will harden as the yoke of poverty presses upon him, and his pluck rise with every difficulty poverty throws in his way, may as well retire into some corner and hide himself. Poverty saves a thousand times more men than it ruins; for it only ruins those who are not particularly worth saving, while it saves multitudes of and Periodical Store, 104 King-street, price 5 cts. | those whom wealth would have ruined. If any young man who reads this is so unfortunate as to be rich, I give him my pity. I pity you, my rich young friend, because you are in danger. You lack one stimulus to effort and excellence, which your poor companion possesses. You will be very apt, if you have a soft spot in your head, to think yourself above him, and that sort of thing makes you mean and injures you. With full pockets and full stomach, and fine linen and broadcloth on your back; your heart and soul plethoric, in the race of life, you will find yourself surpassed by all the poor boys around you before you know it. No, my boy, if you are poor, thank God and take courage: for He intends to give you a chance to make something of yourself. If you had plenty of money, ten chances to one it would spoil you for all useful purposes. Do you lack education? Have you been cut short in the text book? Remember that education, like some other things, does not consist in the multidude of things a man possesses. What can you do? That is the question that settles the business for you. Do you know your business? Do you know men and how to deal with them? Has your mind, by any means whatsoever, received that discipline which gives to it action, power and facility? If so, then you are more of a man and a thousand times better educated than the fellow who graduates from college, with his brains full of stuff that he cannot apply to the practical business of life-stuff, the acquisition of which has been in no sense GREAT EXCITEMENT!—Everybody is reading the account of the GREAT FIGHT becerned. There are very few men in this cerned. There are very few men in this world less than thirty years of age, and unmarried, who can afford to be rich. One of the greatest benefits to be reaped from great financial disasters, is the saving of a large crop of young men .- Timothy Titcomb.
